

Press Release

August 18, 2011

Cotton Hill Studios and October Eve Music Group are proud to announce two unique upcoming episodes of Rick's Picks. James McCaffrey, co-star of the critically acclaimed FX hit drama series "Rescue Me" was a recent in-studio guest on the show. The interview will be released in two parts. Part One will be debut on Thursday, August 18th and Part Two will follow on August 25th. These podcasts are candid, humorous and fascinating. James and Rick's conversation will be of particular significance not only to fans of "Rescue Me" but also to enthusiasts of motion pictures. James McCaffrey was born and raised in Albany, NY but left the northeast to pursue a career in acting. James is a talented and prolific character actor who's appeared in dozens of major films including "The Truth About Cats and Dogs", "American Splendor" and Spike Lee's "She Hate Me". James really opens up with Rick in this candid, one-on-one discussion. You can find Rick's Picks on iTunes or www.rickspickspodcast.com as well as www.rickbedrosian.com.