

Press Release

January 8, 2011

Cotton Hill Studios and October Eve Music Group are proud to announce two unique upcoming episodes of Rick's Picks. Susie Essman, co-star of the critically acclaimed HBO hit comedy series "Curb Your Enthusiasm" was a recent in-studio guest on the show. The interview will be released in two parts. Part One will debut on Thursday, January 13 and Part Two will follow on January 20th. These podcasts are candid, humorous and fascinating. Susie and Rick's conversation will be of particular significance not only to fans of "Curb Your Enthusiasm" but also to enthusiasts of stand-up comedy, television production and comedy writing. "Curb Your Enthusiasm" was created by Larry David, the co-creator of Seinfeld. David also stars and writes these shows utilizing a very unique method. The cast and crew recently completed filming "Curb's" eighth season. "Curb Your Enthusiasm" appears on just about every television critic's top-twenty list of all-time best TV sitcoms and Susie Essman has been an integral part of "Curb's" success. Essman, a veteran actress, stand-up comic and author, really let's it all hang out in this candid, one-on-one discussion with Rick.
